Steps after testing for COVID-19

If you test negative

Resume your daily activities while continuing to take preventative measures.

If you test positive

The process changes if any of the following 4 conditions apply.

- ① You are 65 years or older (on the date of examination)
- ② You require hospitalisation as determined by your doctor
- ③ You are at risk of becoming seriously ill, and require medication or oxygen as determined by your doctor
- ④ You are pregnant

Testing conducted outside of Saitama Prefecture

Contact your local government or public health centre.

If ANY of the conditions listed in ①~④ apply to you
(Registration completed by medical institution)

■ The medical institution will register your result

The medical institution you were examined at will notify the public health centre of your positive result, so you do not need to self-register with the Saitama Prefecture COVID-19 Registration Service. You will be sent a pulse oximeter (application not required).

■ Receive notifications

You will receive notifications about the following via SMS or phone call.

- Name of medical institution and contact phone number
- Isolation period
- HER-SYS ID (*required for My HER-SYS registration)
- How to apply for quarantine accommodation

■ The public health centre will monitor your health

After registering with My HER-SYS, please record information such as your temperature. The health centre will monitor your health and check in on your condition by phone.

■ Stay at home until you have completed your isolation period as directed by your doctor

Even if you are nearing the end of your isolation period, it may be extended if you have a fever or severe cough.

If NONE of the conditions listed in ①~④ apply to you
(Registration NOT completed by medical institution)

■ Self-register your positive result

Please self-register on the Saitama Prefecture COVID-19 Registration Service (see back page). You can apply for a pulse oximeter and quarantine accommodation at the time of registration.

■ Receive notifications

Once you have registered, you will receive notifications about the following via SMS or email.

- Your designated Home Isolation Support Centre's direct phone number
- HER-SYS ID (*required for My HER-SYS registration)

■ Self-monitor your health

After registering with My HER-SYS, please record information such as your temperature and monitor your symptoms. If your symptoms get worse, contact the Home Isolation Support Centre.

■ Stay at home until you have completed your mandatory isolation period

Please see below for more information. You will not be notified when your isolation period ends, or receive a certificate of recovery.
